HOW TO MANAGE DIABETES IN GENERAL PRACTICE

2016 HEALTH PROFESSIONAL TRAINING PROGRAM

THIS PROGRAM IS SUITABLE FOR PRACTICE NURSES

DATE: TUESDAY 09 AUGUST 2016
TIME: 9.00 AM - 4.15 PM

COST
$180 includes GST (plus booking fee)
EARLY BIRD $150 includes GST (plus booking fee)
if paid in full by 08 July 2016

REGISTRATION:
Please visit: www.bakeridi.edu.au/health_professionals_training

PROGRAM OVERVIEW
This one day program will enhance the knowledge and skills necessary to work with the General Practitioner and Allied Health professionals to provide best management to people living with type 2 diabetes.

TOPICS WILL INCLUDE:
> Overview of pathophysiology of type 1, type 2 and gestational diabetes
> Complications and screening including annual cycle of care, GP management plans and team care arrangements
> Medications including insulin
> Nutritional management
> Practical components including use of glucometers and insulin pens
> Referral pathways
THE BAKER IDI TRAINING TEAM

Baker IDI’s multi-disciplinary team includes diabetes specialists, credentialed diabetes educators and accredited practising dietitians.

Our highly skilled presenters aim to make learning experiences practical and relevant to assist you to provide better care for people with diabetes.

VENUE

Baker IDI Heart and Diabetes Institute
The Alfred Centre
Level 4, 99 Commercial Road
Melbourne, Victoria, 3004

This program has been endorsed by APNA according to approved quality standards criteria. Completion of this education program entitles eligible participants to claim 6 CPD hours.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION

For further information regarding our training programs for health professionals, contact:

Sonia Middleton, Manager Education Services
E sonia.middleton@bakeridi.edu.au
T (03) 8532 1850
W www.bakeridi.edu.au/health_professionals_training